6th Swansea City Exhibition of International Photography.

“This year, to keep the entry fee low, we are only accepting digital entries but we are still offering a comprehensive Salon Catalogue for each entrant. There will be four sections. Open Colour, Open Mono, Travel, Nature, and a new section People specially set up to allow more Open section acceptances and awards. If all sections are entered with 4 images the fee is less than £1 per image. Payment will be via Paypal. If online upload of images is not available to you then CD entries will be accepted with an additional cost as indicated in our fees. We are approved by both FIAP and PSA and all acceptances will count towards their distinctions. Results will be available for use in any application for distinctions at the end of 2010” Closing date is 21st October 2010.

Now open for your entries. Details and Entry Form at –

NEW RECORDED LECTURE NOW AVAILABLE

'HOW TO JUDGE OR NOT TO JUDGE'

by John Wigmore FRPS EFIAP MPAGB APAGB

The lecture starts with a brief introduction giving pointers to what a judge would be looking for from the images presented and also what it is better not to say.

This is followed, in two parts, with images and relevant comments based on John's extensive and highly acclaimed experience of judging at all levels. Each image is marked out of 20.

The images - excellent, good, and not so good - have all been supplied by Ashford P.S. Running time approx 1½ hours. Cost to hire is £11.

Available in Windows and Mac versions from Michael Betts. t: 01424 854304. Page. 102 of the PAGB Handbook for Michael's full address.

Introducing David Keith Jones FRPS

David is a much-published photographer and a popular speaker.

Apart from his own books Faces of Kenya and Shepherds of the Desert published in London by Hamish Hamilton many thousands of his images have been used worldwide in books, magazines, calendars and newspapers.

As an expert on Africa his masterly presentations, illustrated with beautiful images, have delighted hundreds of audiences in England, the United States and Africa. He markets his work through his own agency, Images of Africa Photobank, in association with Alamy where he has over 9,500 images available on line with more being added on a regular basis.

David became a Fellow of the Royal Photographic Society – a distinction awarded for his nature photography – and an Associate of the British Institute of Professional Photographers in 1991.

Now semi-retired David is available to Clubs and can offer an unusual and entertaining evening with outstanding images and a fluent delivery. His presentation on the lifestyle of the semi desert nomadic people of East Africa offers club members insights into remote areas few people have visited.

Other topics include African Elephants, Lions, Spotted Predators, and Jewels of northern Italy.
