Sponsored by [www.on-line paper.co.uk](http://www.on-line paper.co.uk)

PRESENTATION EVENT ON SATURDAY 4 DECEMBER 2021

It was a delight that 35 of the 60 photographers with prints in the exhibition were able to attend this event. All of them signed our archive catalogues and received their unique badge, including three who were presented with a silver badge for acceptance in the first 5 masters of print exhibitions.

If you could not attend you can still receive your badge by signing the catalogues or by sending two small labels bearing your signature plus a stamped, addressed envelope to Rod Wheelans, 3 Terregles Street, DUMFRIES, DG2 9AA.

It was a particular pleasure to welcome Morgan Loughton from exhibition sponsors, Online Paper, and also representatives from other PAGB Sponsors, all of whom chose a favourite print and awarded some stunning prizes.

Morgan Loughton from Online Paper chose “Stripes” by Tony Mulvenna to receive a £250 voucher.

Tom Storey from Canon presented a Canon RP Camera Kit to Tim Pile for “The Boat”.

Dominic Gurney from Epson chose “Hospital in Lockdown” by Dave Moyes to receive a Surecolor SC-P700 A3+ Printer.

Fotospeed representative, Tim Jones, presented a £200 voucher to “Curl” by Robert Goode.

Jeremey Pridgeon from Permajet chose “Viv the Spiv” by Mike Sharples for the award of a £200 voucher.

Chris Roberts from Paper Spectrum presented a selection of Paper and Mountboard to “Squabbling Young Starlings” by Richard O’Meara.

Every entrant will receive a catalogue through their letterbox in January. Even if you did not get an image accepted, I'm sure that you will enjoy it. A catalogue is really a poor description for something more like a "coffee table book". We have a limited number of copies available for purchase at just £10 each, including postage, and you can obtain these through our Central Entry System. <https://pagbhost.co.uk/main/main.php>

If you missed the MASTERS OF PRINT in Birmingham, perhaps you can see the exhibition in Liverpool.

Masters of Print Hall of Fame

If you have had an acceptance to the 2020 or 2021 MASTERS OF PRINT exhibitions you are cordially invited to submit some of your images at PDI size for an e-news feature, together with 300-400 words about your experience of the MASTERS or something about your own photography. We would especially like to hear from those accepted for the first time but everyone is welcome, even if you have been featured previously.
