One of the highlights of the Opening was when Mrs Una Bailey, the subject of Paul Hassell's photo, turned up and posed happily for everyone, even signing at least one photobook.

Una said "It was a good experience being photographed and I really liked it. I really enjoyed being talked about and complimented on the day, when people saw me next to the photograph."

Her daughter Millie later wrote -

"As it was the last weekend, Mum and I, went to have a second look at the picture.

She loves her photo, Paul, she really does.

She absolutely loves it!"
