AWARDS FOR PHOTOGRAPHIC MERIT 20/21 APR 2013

FOUR MORE MPAGB

PLUS 47 NEW CPAGB AND 22 NEW DPAGB

Possibly a record number of successful entrants at a single Adjudication

PASS RATE - CPAGB 82%, DPAGB 45% & MPAGB 67%

The Midland Counties Photographic Federation (MCPF), under the control of their President Ralph Duckett MPAGB EFIAP APAGB, superbly hosted the latest Awards for Photographic Merit (APM) Adjudication on behalf of the PAGB and provided a wonderful venue at the Hillscourt Conference Centre. It was a great weekend with a much higher overall standard of work than we have seen at recent Adjudications – a product, we believe, of the much greater workshop and mentoring activity now going on in many Federations.

It seemed that the gap between the CPAGB and the DPAGB is closing - there were many photographs at the lower level which are likely to be successful at DPAGB. Indeed there were even a few which would probably score in the MPAGB passing range. The Adjudicators were appropriately generous with their votes which resulted in an encouragingly high pass rate. There was good work entered too for the DPAGB and the passing rate was slightly in excess of our current trend.

For several years there were virtually no passes for MPAGB but this time, as in Pontefract a year ago, we had Four!

Congratulations to everyone. The next issue will carry a full list of the new PAGB Distinction holders and successful entries will be featured in e-news throughout the summer. If anyone would care to send me a few words about their experience of the event I would be delighted to find space whenever I can.

FEATURING DONCASTER CAMERA CLUB

Although we trace our roots back to 1893, Doncaster Camera Club's sights are set very firmly on the future. Like many other clubs our members are a mixture of 18 to 80 year olds. Whatever their age, whatever the level, the common thread through it all is a love of taking photographs. Recent years has seen membership numbers grow steadily to 55 - still short of the heady days of the 1970s when we had a membership of over 100. We are proud that about 25% of our members have achieved either RPS or PAGB distinctions at various levels. Those who hold them actively mentor members who are considering going down the distinctions route.

See Page 8 for a key to the photographers

Throughout its existence the Doncaster C.C. has thrived because of the active work and support of the members. We look forward to this continuing well into the future.

Maurice Hammon ADPS I wonder why we chase photography. I think of a man, some 40,000 years ago filling his mouth with paint and blowing it out forming an image of his hand on the cave wall. Perhaps that is where the answer is buried.

At 85 years of age I will settle for that, and work on exploring rather than understanding. My background is confusing. I was born with a disablement which contributed to leaving school, hardly able to read or write. I couldn't get, or keep, jobs so I settled for the easy way, and went into computing. I am a member of the Disabled Photography Society and I lean towards Landscape work. I prefer to print although I see that this will soon fade.

FEATURED FEDERATION & PAGB EVENTS

WCPF AWARDS WORKSHOP - WORDS BY JANET HAINES CPAGB ARPS WITH PICTURE BY KEITH OSMENT

With the November PAGB Awards happening on our home territory in November, I and many of my club colleagues are ‘going for gold’ – well Awards anyway. Some doing C’s and others D’s but the challenge of collecting sufficient work, of high enough calibre, can be pretty daunting. After all how does one critically make that judgment of ones own photography? Fortunately the Western Counties Photographic Federation recognised our dilemma and, in their normal supportive way, organised a workshop for members. An enormous amount of hard work went into co-ordinating five busy senior PAGB adjudicators diaries, and finding a hall, all to organise a great event for us.

The day started with a talk and a showing of the PAGB advisory CD plus displays of successful C and D prints. Both helped us understand the required competence levels.

Then came the time for us to show our own selection of prints & PDIs. Moving from table to table, in a very organised and structured way, we were able to get valuable comments and advice on our work from each of the “famous five” advisors. Most of us had a core of work that was felt to be ‘up to standard’ with some images in the margins; selected ‘in’ by some of the experts and dropped by others. Perhaps we had a few that needed improvements or re-printing. The guidance and help we received was invaluable. Where we had come along to the meeting feeling uncertain, confused and perhaps even lacking a cohesive plan, I think I can speak for all attendees when I say we all went home reinvigorated, inspired, with a real plan and purpose of how we will get to our various goals.

Thanks to Di and John Tilsley, Eddie and Pam Lane for organising the event. And to Peter Gennard Bob & Sue Moore, John Chamberlin & Pete McCloskey, for dedicating a full day for our benefit.

“OFF THE WALL” BY STAN FARROW FRPS DPAGB EFIAP

These pictures are from Stan’s successful FRPS panel and the following words are his ”Statement of Intent”.

“I have had a lasting interest in the abstract art of the late 20th Century. Painters such as Jackson Pollock, Mark Rothko, Barnett Newman, André Masson, and even Jóan Miró produced expressionist work that depended on colour, form and texture, but which had little recognisable subject. In close-up and when examined in detail, I perceived parallels between the shapes, colours and textures of graffiti on a local wall with those of abstract expressionist art. I faithfully recorded what I saw, leaving the only modifications to the original paint to be those caused by interaction with the substrate and with the elements. In some of the photographs these natural interactions have provided vital elements in the final image. My only intervention was in the selection of pattern. My intention is that the resulting images provide a colourful range of abstract photographic art.” An exhibition of photographs by Stan Farrow will be held in the Visitor Centre of Dundee Botanic Garden, (Riverside Drive, Dundee), between 16th and 28th May 2013.
